1. Weekend Quiz

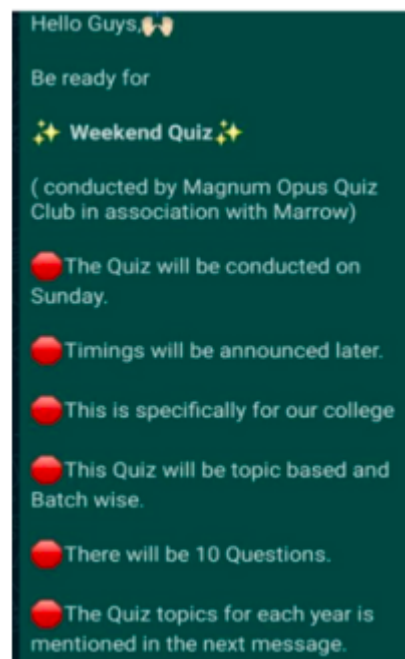

The Magnum Opus Quiz Club conducted the weekend quiz on 04th October 2020. It included all the batches in which one topic from their respective year was given.

The winners were awarded a free trial for 5 days by Marrow, an online NEET PG preparation app.

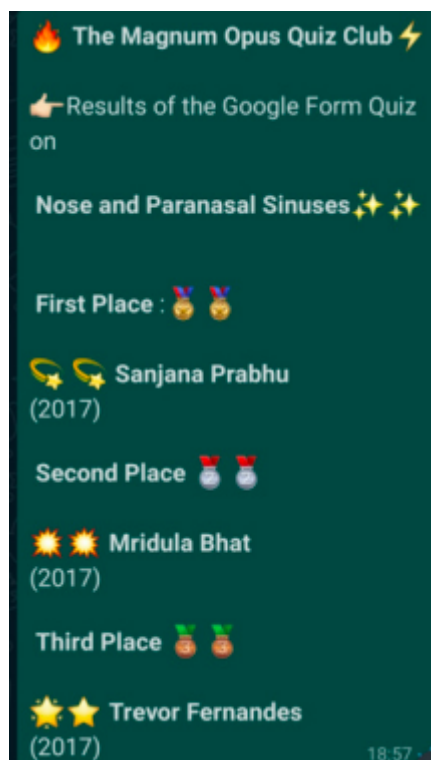

2. Introductory meeting

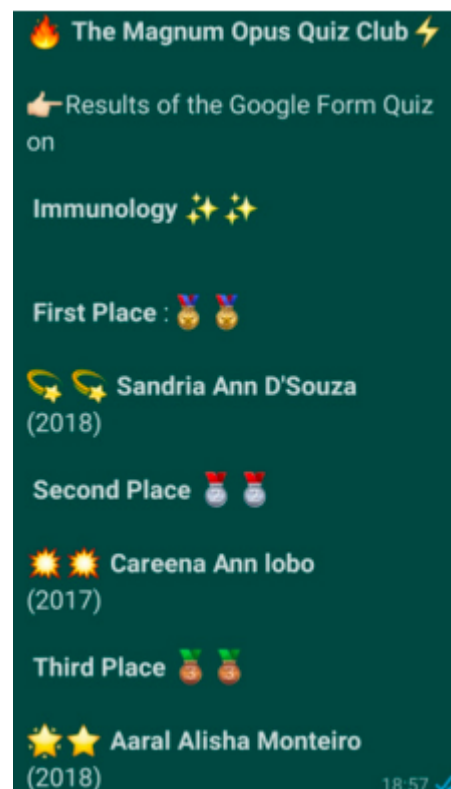

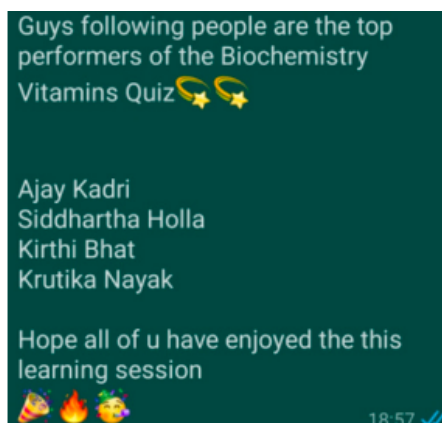

The introductory meeting for the new batch 2020 was held on the 5th of February 2021 in DM hall. Dr Shivshankar, Professor in the Department of Biochemistry, presided over the event. This meeting was held to discuss the objectives and goals of the quiz club. The President of the Magnum Opus Quiz, Abhishek Sharma, was the speaker for this event. Students got to know about the club's functioning and cleared their doubts. An interesting short quiz on Biology concluded this.

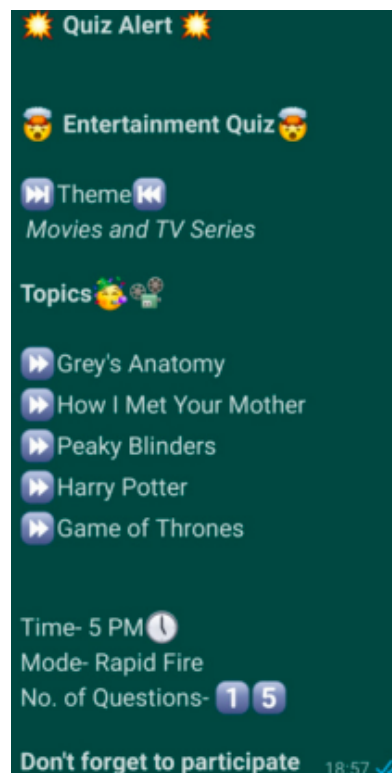

3. Online WhatsApp Quizzes

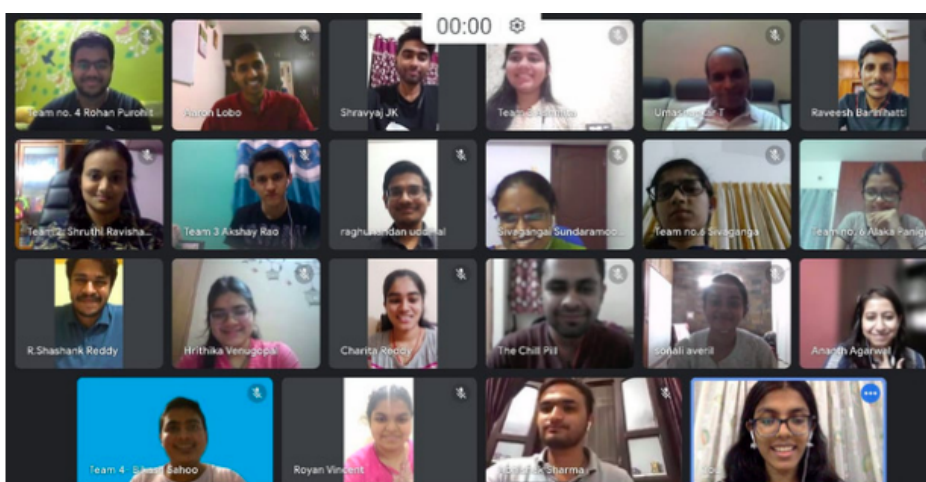

The club conducted multiple online quizzes from May 2021 to July 2021 on various topics from all MBBS years. The quizzes were mostly rapid fires, which included questions on various disciplines. Certain Entertainment Quizzes based on TV shows and sports were also conducted.

4. Aesthèneia

In an extraordinary collaboration, The Magnum Opus Quiz Club and The Chill Pill Quiz Foundation orchestrated a distinguished National Level Pathology Quiz, unfolding its intellectual tapestry from the 16th to the 18th of June, 2021. A formidable cohort of 250 teams from every corner of the nation participated, witnessing the triumph of the Jipmer team as they ascended to victory. The subsequent felicitation ceremony was graced by the presence of Dr. Umashankar T from the Department of Pathology.

THANK YOU.
